

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

41-774

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

I am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State House Bill Number 230, increasing attorneys fees for representation of indigents accused of felony offenses and making the payment of such fees mandatory. This bill would take away from the trial judges the discretion they have in these matters under existing law and would impose a considerable additional cost on the various counties.

House Bill Number 230 was received in the Governor's Office less than ten (10) days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the Fifty-sixth Legislature, and in accordance with the Constitution, the bill, together with this Proclamation, is being filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the 1st day of June, A. D., 1959.

Governor of Texas
